Swimsuit Guidelines:

We request that swimsuits make an attempt to be modest. The following guidelines apply to swimsuits at camp, swimsuits that don't meet the guidelines may be accompanied by a shirt or shorts to meet the guidelines.

- Swimsuits must fully cover appropriate areas including the groin and buttocks and in the case of girls, their chest
- Girls' Swimsuits must not deliberately expose the midriff
- Swimsuits must be of a sufficiently heavy fabric as not to be transparent dry or wet.
- Swimsuits must fit and be worn in an appropriate manner

General Information to Note:

- We are a smoke free environment; the only exception is our camp fires!
- Mark your initials and last name on all personal property. Check out widjitiwin.mabel.ca to help with this
- Camp Widjitiwin is not and cannot be responsible for personal belongings. All broken, lost, missing or presumed stolen items are the responsibility of the individual. If you have expensive personal property you need to make sure that it is stored safely and securely.
- Lost items will be kept at Camp Widjitiwin until 2 weeks following your stay, after which items may be donated to charity.
- Please bring sufficient clothing for the duration of your stay.
- Care should be taken of all personal property. There should be no problem by keeping these things put away (out of reach of others) and if individuals keep to their own belongings.

IF IN DOUBT, LEAVE IT AT HOME!!
